(Look for RBA sign at drive entrance)

Contrast in Command: The Battle of Fair Oaks

The Seven Pines battlefield, nearly lost to history, has been reclaimed! Join us for a free public walking tour led by acclaimed historian Victor Vignola. Explore the pivotal Adams farm, preserved by the American Battlefield Trust, and uncover the strategic decisions of Union Generals Couch and Sumner against General Johnston's Confederates.

Come celebrate RBA's preservation of an additional 24-acres of core battlefield in partnership with the Capital Region Land Conservancy. This historic ground was once held by the renowned Irish Brigade.

Bring a chair, bring a friend, and experience this vital piece of history!
